

Centre for Conflict Management

(A not-for-profit, voluntary initiative for creating a peaceful, creative, and vibrant world under the guidance and mentorship of a world-renowned expert on Conflict Management and Negotiation Prof. Himanshu Rai, Director, IIM Indore)

Roles and Responsibilities of various Stakeholders:

1. Campus Ambassadors:

Campus Ambassadors would represent their colleges and will function as a point of contact for volunteers and candidates from their institutes.

Their primary responsibilities would be:

- 1.1. Spreading the word about this initiative and organizing and assisting a team of volunteers from their institute.
- 1.2. Organizing Webinars with our Resource Persons on a monthly basis.
- 1.3. Carrying out a Wellbeing and Happiness Quotient Survey and Assessment of students, under the guidance of a Resource Persons of Centre for Conflict Management.
- 1.4. Organizing annual seminars on conflict management in coordination with other Campus Ambassadors in their city.
- 1.5. Disseminate various resource materials received from the Centre for Conflict Management.

2. City Representatives:

Their primary responsibilities would be:

- 2.1. To supervise and collate the activities of various Campus Ambassadors in the city they represent.
- 2.2. To conduct various outreach activities to engage students from the campuses of various educational institutions.
- 2.3. To connect with the State representatives and Resource persons of Centre for Conflict Management, as and when required.

3. State Representatives:

Their primary responsibilities would be:

- 3.1. To supervise and collate the activities of various City Representatives from various cities of the state they represent.
- 3.2. To connect and collaborate with other State Representatives for assistance and support.
- 3.3. To connect with the Resource Persons of Centre of Conflict Management, as and when required.

4. Resource Persons:

They would be experts and seasoned professionals from Industry and Academia, who can enrich our endeavors,

Their primary responsibilities would be:

- 4.1. To guide and supervise our team of Campus Ambassadors/City Representatives/State Representatives, who reach out for assistance and request their presence to conduct knowledge sharing interactive sessions at Institute/City/State level events (in online and offline mode), as and when required.
- 4.2. To ensure that their session stays relevant and engaging, by utilizing various resources available and delegating relevant tasks to our team of volunteers in this regard.
- 4.3. Collaborating with other Resource People to work on queries and provide assistance to people who request for help (via mail) with their conflicts.

5. Volunteers:

Their primary responsibilities would be:

- 5.1. To assist Campus Ambassadors, City & State Representatives and Resource Persons in various endeavors and tasks, while coordinating with other volunteers.
- 5.2. To be open to learn and adapt to dynamic situations and tasks, as they may work on various levels and network with diverse members.